There was free parking and no admission charge to attend. Free shuttles buses ran back and forth from the Amerex parking lot all day. We had live music and Zumbini demos.

Activities were planned for the entire family from tots to seniors and everyone in between. Some of the offerings included hayrides to the pumpkin patch, raffles, defender dome ride, 5-in-1 sports game, pony rides, a petting zoo, pumpkin painting, and many children's games with prizes. Rides and games ranged in price from 50 cents to $5 and the unlimited games and ride bracelet which included everything all day was only $15.

There was also an opportunity to win up to $2250 in cash prizes in addition to a large screen TV and other prizes. There was scavenger hunts and door prizes from our wonderful vendors all day.

There food selections included a "Choose 1 meat + 2" from a choice of authentic German Sausage or BBQ pork with potato salad, beans and coleslaw. We had music from Wolfgang Moritz along with Ms. Alabama and her sister and the Leaf Filter kids. Zumbini Demos were held in between. There were treats such as cakes, strudels, funnel cakes, cookies, smoothies, iced coffee, lemonade, Kaiser and hot dog plates, pizza, nachos and other kid-friendly snacks. Breakfast biscuits were served from 7-10:30AM.

Grandma's back porch had homemade jellies, jams, pickles, candies, breads, pastries and cookies. And Grandma's Attic was full of gently used treasures at bargain prices. The hospitality café was open with coffee and treats or just to take a break from all the activities during the day.

Almost 80 vendors offered beautiful, handcrafted and unique items perfect for special occasion gifts, home décor, boutique clothing for children and adults, beauty items, various services and gift baskets, ideal for the upcoming Christmas season.
