

October 14th: Holy Infant of Prague Oktoberfest Trussville

Holy Infant of Prague is hosting their 7th annual Oktoberfest Trussville. This family-fun festival is on October 14th, Saturday from 9AM to 3PM.

There is free parking and no admission charge to attend. Free shuttle buses run back and forth from the Amerex parking lot. Enjoy authentic German food (large platters include 3 types of smoked German sausages, German potato salad, sauerkraut, red cabbage and roll) and live music along with lots of other treats such as cakes, strudels, funnel cakes, cookies. There's also a snack pavilion offering Kaiser and hot dog plates, pizza, nachos, cotton candy, peanuts and other kid-friendly snacks.

Activities are planned for the entire family from tots to seniors and everyone in between. Some of the offerings include hayrides to the pumpkin patch, raffles, knockerball, defender dome ride, 5-in-1 sports game, obstacle course, pony rides, a petting zoo, pumpkin painting, and many children's games with prizes. This year, the $15 bracelet includes all the rides and games – unlimited for all day – or they can be purchased individually ala carte.

Grandma's back porch has homemade jellies, jams, pickles, candies, breads, pastries and cookies. And Grandma's Attic is full of gently used treasures at bargain prices. The hospitality café is open for those who want have coffee and treats for breakfast or to take a break from all the activities during the day.

Almost 100 vendors will be offering beautiful, handcrafted and unique items perfect for special occasion presents, home décor, boutique clothing for children and adults, beauty items, various services and gift baskets, ideal for the upcoming Christmas season.

The famous Authentic German Sampler plates are also available at the "To-Go Drive-Through" from 10AM to 2PM. This will be great for those bringing food to shut-ins or for who are unable to attend the festival but still want some wonderful food to celebrate the Oktoberfest season. You don't have to park or walk up to the tickets and food areas. You also can pre-buy the tickets online for convenience.
